

I DO NOT support deregulation of broadcast ownership. One company owning a large percentage of media outlets in an area does not benefit that community. The US government should encourage a wide variety of viewpoints and programming options.